Dear Professor,

I have received your note of 4 march 2022 in which you present the proposal to establish a UNESCO Chair on Music Creativity, Education and Science at your institution.

Your proposal deserves the strongest and most convinced support, especially in this dramatic moment.

The UNESCO Chair in Intangible Cultural Heritage and Comparative Law of the University of Rome Unitelma Sapienza, which I direct, wants to express to you, with this formal note, its support and convinced adherence to your educational project.

In particular, our collaboration may concern the intangible cultural heritage connected with music and musical traditions: to this end, we could envisage exchanges of researchers, implement joint research projects, and organized a permanent Italian-Ukrainian dialogue on this type of cultural heritage.

In this logic, the Chair I am hold expresses its convinced support for your proposal.

Finally, allow me, on behalf of the Rector of my University and on behalf of the entire teaching staff of the University
